

The Fairy Spinning Wheel and the Tales it spun

Catulle MENDÈS (1841 - 1909)

translated by Thomas Jondrie VIVIAN (1855 - 1925)

This is a little volume of old-fashioned fairy tales, collected and rewritten by Catulle Mendès and translated from the French and adapted for an American audience by TJ Vivian. This collection contains some of the most well-known fairy tales, such as the Sleeping Beauty, but also contains some tales which the listener may not be familiar with yet. There is much to discover in these pages. - Summary by Carolin
